For Immediate Release:

Turning Point's Board, Administration and Staff are heartbroken by the tragic news of Morrow County Sheriff's Deputy, Daniel Sherrer losing his life in the line of duty last night while responding to a domestic violence situation. We share our heartfelt condolences with Deputy Sherrer's family, the Morrow County Sheriff's Office and all those affected by this devastating loss.

Domestic violence not only affects the lives of victims and survivors—it also puts the lives of first responders at risk. This tragedy is a painful reminder of the danger inherent in these situations and the lasting impact on families, communities, and those sworn to protect them.

Turning Point stands with law enforcement and the entire Morrow County community during this time. We are committed to being a resource for anyone experiencing domestic violence. If you or someone you know is in an unsafe situation, please know that you are not alone.

Turning Point offers 24/7 confidential services including our 24-hour crisis line and texting service, victim rights advocacy, safe haven/emergency shelter and support for survivors and their children. Our services are provided at no cost to all who have been affected by domestic violence.

If you need help, please contact Turning Point's 24-hour crisis line or texting service at 1-800-232-6505 or text the word tphelp to 20121.
